Known as the 'city of heroes', Surabaya has always held a special place for the Indonesian people. It was the famous Battle of Surabaya that led to independence from Dutch and Japanese rule, and the birth of the Indonesian nation. Today, Surabaya plays an important role as a commercial and trading hub for the eastern islands of the archipelago. Ideally situated in the heart of Surabaya's commercial district, and linked to historic Jl Tunjungan, one of the city's key thoroughfares and a major trading centre, Amaris Hotel Embong Malang enjoys an enviable position, with all key business and tourism areas just a short distance away. At Amaris hotels, our guests enjoy the comfort of a clean, crisp, 'smart' room with ultra-stylish design and cutting-edge LED TV - all without having to pay more for the privilege.
